THE DAILY AVALANCHE

Robert Bonner, it is said, returns an income of $200,000.

The foreign vote in New York City is 80,000; the native, 52,000.

George Francis Train has rented his hotel at Omaha for $10,000 a year.

Crisp has opened Ralston's Hall at Macon, Georgia, with a theatrical company.

At Baton Rouge, Louisiana, they have a colored justice of the peace, and a constable of like order.

The Charleston (South Carolina) Mercury says that there has not been a case of yellow fever in that city this year.

Barnum's gorilla attacked Professor Davison, his keeper, on Friday, and came very near making short work of him.

Middling cotton was sold at Montgomery, Alabama, on the thirtieth ultimo, at seventeen cents, including tax.

An exchange says when so much is said of "gentlemanly conductors," a few words of praise would not be misspent on steady and responsible locomotive engineers.

The Homeopathic College of Pennsylvania has determined to open its doors to women, provided a sufficient number offer to make it desirable as a test of its benefits.

Chancellor Harrison, at Nashville, refused to grant an injunction in the election case, and the new officials took possession Wednesday, backed, or led, rather, by a company of militia.

The Vicksburg Herald of the 29th ultimo says: Pollard, a negro candidate, received a large majority at the election yesterday at DeSoto, Louisiana, which was held for the State Convention.

Governor Stevenson, of Kentucky, on Wednesday commissioned Frank Wolford Adjutant General, and Major Fayette Hewitt, of Hardin county, Quartermaster General, both of whom took the oath of office.

A man named Kennedy dashed into the treasury of a National bank of Chicago, Tuesday, in broad daylight, and stole a package containing one thousand dollars. He was pursued and captured with the money, in a saloon.

A Brazos, Texas, planter informs the Houston Telegraph that from eight hundred acres planted the parties he made only six hundred bales, and dangerous. It to the worms. His neighbors were Only four off.

Archbishop McCloskey, it is said, has called for volunteers among the priests in New York to proceed at once to New Orleans to take the place of the clergy who are either worn out or are down with the disease.

The fastest time in American railroading was that of a directors' train on the New York Central railroad, the other day, from Hamburg to Buffalo—ten miles in eight minutes, or at the rate of seventy-eight miles an hour.

Two men appeared on the road some five miles above Owensboro, Kentucky, Wednesday morning about ten o'clock, robbing every one they met. They took from Mr. Celia Bell five hundred dollars and smaller amounts from various other parties. A large force is now in pursuit.

The statement of cotton receipts for the present season puts Savannah ahead of all other Southern seaports. Mobile comes next, and New Orleans third in the race. In order to move this large supply of cotton Savannah has no less than six lines of steamships—four to New York, one to Philadelphia, and one to Baltimore.

Just before the election in California, says Brick Pomeroy, General J. P. Brownlow, son of that quintessence of the filth of hell now governing Tennessee, wrote home from the Golden State: "I find papa is very popular here. The State is Radical." We wonder what "papa" and "sonny" think of California's Radicalism, now?

Judge Shackleford, of Canton, Mississippi, who has been appointed Circuit Judge in place of the late J. S. Yerger, has notified the Sheriff of Coahoma county to summons jurors and have everything in readiness, as he will open court on the 14th day of October, 1867.

A dispatch to the Nashville Banner, dated Montgomery, Alabama, October 2, says: "In the election in this State, it is estimated that one hundred thousand votes will be cast, which are nearly all colored, for the Convention. The whites are, generally, not voting. So far, all is quiet and peaceful. The polls will be closed to-morrow."

The liquor house of Hatch, Maurice & Co., St. Louis, was entered by burglars Monday night and the safe robbed of a thousand dollars in money, and a large quantity of notes and valuable papers. Five watches, a diamond pin, valued at $4,000, and $35,000 in Government bonds were left behind by the burglars.

In illustration of what may be done to restock rivers with salmon, after the supply has been almost exhausted, we have the report of the British Fishery Commissioners for 1866, by which it appears that two streams—the Riddle and Hodder—which in 1859 yielded only 900 fish, last year furnished 9,000, and others in similar proportion.

One of the Radical Councilmen, recently elected in Nashville, is a full blooded negro by the name of Daniel Watkins. As every successful candidate is a rampant Radical, we suppose Daniel's official relations will be both agreeable and harmonious, provided the courts sustain the high handed measures by which Radicalism was imposed upon Nashville.

The London Sculpel gives the following as an infallible cure for small pox and scarlet fever: Sulphate of zinc, one grain; fox glove (digitalis), one grain; half a teaspoonful of sugar: mix with two tablespoonsful of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours. For a child, smaller doses, according to age.

Cotton is arriving quite freely at Atlanta, by boat, railway and wagon. On the 30th ultimo it sold for fourteen cents, tax unpaid. Only those sell who are compelled to have money. The Intelligencer considers the present prices "ruinous," and expresses the hope "that better prices will rule before long."

A gentleman from Union City, says the Nashville Banner of the 3d, states that an affray took place at that place, yesterday morning, between Tho. Hamner, a well known Nashville and Memphis sporting man, and Louis alias Jew Myers, in which the former received a fatal wound from a pistol in the hands of his antagonist. The difficulty originated about some money which had been won by the two. We could learn no particulars. Our informant states that Hamner was badly shot, and could not possibly recover.

When the Tenure of Office bill was before Congress, Senator John Sherman remarked: "No man, with any sense of honor, would hold a position as Cabinet officer after his chief desired his removal, and therefore, the slightest intimation on the part of the President, would always secure the resignation of a Cabinet officer." It said that Stanton wrote the veto of this bill for the President, but it was passed over the veto, and Stanton did not follow the precept of John Sherman, but held on as long as he could. The New York Post, itself Radical, thus describes this club-footed bill: "It is an absurd act of Congress, limiting the power of the President over his subordinates, and which ought to be repealed as soon as Congress meets, for it is sure to make trouble, and it can do no good. Such a law can only be a source of danger."

LETTER FROM COUSIN NOURMA.

LANCASTER, PENN., September 25, 1867.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: Since I left Lookout Mountain, I have made a number of jottings that I hope may prove interesting to your readers. I found the Southern R. R. of Georgia one best railway in every respect in the South. Its new track, smooth rails, fine rolling stock and superior equipments indicate that a master hand controls its management. The Nashville and Chattanooga road, under the admirable management of Mr. Burns, is certainly doing better in every respect than it ever did heretofore. The Louisville and Nashville road is in splendid condition, and doing an enormous business. It was a matter of considerable surprise to me to find the express train running a schedule of twenty-five miles an hour, yet the condition of the road and the excellence of the machinery will easily allow of increased speed. The Memphis and Louisville road is not only doing an immense freighting business, but also a good through passenger travel. There is no doubt that the great success of this railway is due to the energy and enterprising activity of its Superintendent, S. B. Jones. From Cincinnati, I took the most pleasant route that leads to the Eastern cities. By the Little Miami, Panhandle and Pennsylvania Central railways, I reached this point at an average speed of twenty-five miles an hour. The roads are very smooth and in splendid condition. An enormous amount of travel and freight constantly passes in each direction. Along the route, nearly every train carried persons whose faces are familiar on the streets and in business circles in Memphis. This route is especially popular with travelers from the Southwest.

The drought that has prevailed during the past two months in the south, extended to a point as far east as Pittsburg. East and northwest of that there have been copious and drenching rains, whose floods have proved very destructive, especially along the water courses, and damaged the crops everywhere they reached. From Cincinnati to Stoneville the drought has parched the corn, and caused almost a total failure of the crop. Everything looks dried up and destroyed. The grass along the railway lines has been fired at a great many places by sparks from the engines, and extensive fires resulted. Fences, hedges, woods, fields of grass, corn, stacks, etc., have been burned at many places, and at many others there were visible fiercely burning fires, through which the trains passed long distances. I think it is a small estimate to state that fifty miles of fencing, etc., of the section in proximity to the Little Miami and Panhandle roads have been burned during the summer. The highways are covered deep with an intolerable dust, whose gray brown mantle covers all the surface of the country. The crops of autumn cereals are very small throughout that section. East of the Alleghenies the late wheat crop was very fine, but the extensive wet weather and the deluges of the past three months have retarded greatly the growth of every kind of vegetation. Potatoes have rotted in the ground, and proved almost a total failure. Corn has not matured, and while very green and uncut has been severely frosted. Last night gave us an awful cold frosty nip here.

I find all manner of produce in this section ranging at very high prices. But flour sells at fourteen dollars a barrel; corn at a dollar and thirty cents a bushel; potatoes a dollar and a half; sweet potatoes the same; butter twenty five cents a pound; eggs twenty cents a dozen; chickens sixteen cents a pound, undressed; beef twenty cents; bacon eighteen cents, nation and pork the same. These prices are a third larger than in ordinary seasons. Goods of all kinds average perhaps ten per cent. less than Memphis prices. For example, a good pair of boots (home made) cost ten to twelve dollars; shoes six to eight, and other articles in proportion.

I find a great change is taking place throughout this country in politics. Two years ago, when I visited this section, the Radical party was in high feather. Everywhere its satellites were frantic in their denunciation of rebels, copperheads, etc., the war cry was then vae victis! It is still a harsh cry with them, but they have modified it very much in the face of defeat. A general feeling of distrust against the leaders of Radicalism perrades the country, and a change is desired and evidently in progress. The Radicals were threatening and haughty a year ago; now they are comparatively quiet and disposed to present a smooth front and conciliating spirit, so far as their autocrat, Thad. Stevens, will allow them to exhibit.

The most disintegrating element that is now distracting the Radical party is the temperance issue. The leaders of the Puritan party, while in the plenitude of their power, arrogantly assumed to decide how much liquor, and at what hours people should be permitted to drink it. They engrafted the law into their platform, and, as a matter of course, a large portion of their dupes rebelled against this assumption of power. A strong party has thus been organized from the Radical ranks, and their defection promises to materially affect the result of the election. From this cause and other influences that have been applied, the Conservative party is sanguine of success. The leaders feel that the morale of victory in this State must effectually influence elections in other sections, hence they eagerly work for so desirable a result.

I came with little King Phill. Sherry (from Seymour to Harrisburg. At Cincinnati there was no unusual or extraordinary demonstrations in his honor. At Columbus he was overwhelmed with all sorts of annoying attentions. Cannons boomed and bellowed; a Dutch band played Yankee Doodle Dandy, and some politician looking cusses toadied unchily to Phillie. The ladies (and they were numerous on hin) were out in all their party clothes, and they pushed forward muchly to greet the hero of the hour, Little Phillie wouldn't make a speech to them, He placidly smoked his terbacco, and grinned a somewhat ghastly smile of satisfaction. The poor gals were not permitted to kiss his hand, but they kissed their hands to him, and he grimly condescended to kiss his gauntlets in return. But the delay bored him, and one of these disnaying from us that are supposed to make Joe Vertrees, clouded the little king's brow and caused the showmen to hurry up things. Phillie was suffering for drinks, and evidently mad that the time was so long between. About this moment he looked like a mad rum hell dog, when loosed. Very soon he and his five hundred worshippers disappeared in the dusty street leading to the hotel. The poor black folks were not permitted to approach the feted party, neither were any of them at the dinner table; for, for shame! Phillie, to thus ignore and snub the black horse that carries you and your sweet scented party. At Steubenville there was a yelling crowd paying devoits to him. At Pittsburg the Dutch and niggers did him huge honors with music, torches and an eternally big gun to fire the bunting, but they didn't provide him with a special car on the Pennsylvania Central road. At Harrisburg a fe representatives of United States bonds, headed by the apostate Geary, received him with speeches and cold lunch. To the enthusiastic crowd that didn't invite Phillie to liquor, the little King himself cupped that he was going to Washington to see Grant. He also said, and then reiterated it, that the President had made a martyr of him—Phill! and he insisted on asserting that he was a martyr, until he disappeared. Poor Phillie, miserie parbeulur, nascitur un ridiculus mus.

COUSIN NOURMA.

THE NASHVILLE IMBROGLIO.

Mayor Brown Ousted by Force.

Some Excitement—No Fighting.

Mayor Brown having refused to give up his office, we learn from the Nashville Banner that the following orders were issued Wednesday afternoon:

HEADQUARTERS TENNESSEE STATE GUARDS,
NASHVILLE, October 2, 1867.

General Joseph A. Cooper, commanding Tennessee State Guards:

GENERAL: A. E. Alden, Esq., Mayor elect of Nashville, reports to this department that he is resisted in entering upon the office to which he has been elected and qualified. You will therefore aid him with whatever force is necessary to enable him to overcome any illegal resistance or interference he may encounter in entering upon the discharge of his official duties.

By command of Governor Brownlow,
[Signed] H. H. THOMAS,
Acting Private Secretary.

The General commanding having received the foregoing instructions, orders Captain Joseph H. Blackburn, commanding Company "A," 1st Tennessee State Guards, to proceed at once with his command to the City Hall, and render A. E. Alden, Esq., Mayor elect and qualified, such assistance as is necessary to enter upon the discharge of his official duties.

By command of Brigadier General J. A. Cooper,
D. M. NELSON, Colonel and A. D. C.

Immediately thereafter, the Gazette says a cavalry militia squad, commanded by one Blackburn, made their appearance on the Square, between the market and the Court House. The sickly looking warriors were drawn up in line of battle, when Blackburn and several other officers dismounted, and repaired to the Mayor's office, where they found his Honor, W. Matt Brown. Blackburn immediately demanded a surrender of the office. The Mayor asked by what authority he made such a demand. By the authority of Mayor Alden, was the response. Then you can't have it, said the Mayor—that is no authority. Blackburn then produced an order from General Cooper, demanding the surrender, and said that he had been commissioned to carry out his orders. The Mayor then told him that was sufficient, and gave him to understand that he submitted only to force, when he vacated the office, and retired, (to use a popular phrase,) with his accustomed dignity.

Alden, the Radical Mayor, then took possession.

There was a large crowd in and around the market house during the evening, and no little excitement prevailed. At the time the militia were engaged in demanding the surrender, the driver of the Edgefield omnibus line sounded his bugle, and not a few of those present were expecting a charge on the part of the melish. But there was no charge. Everything in fact passed off peaceably and quietly, and the outrageous proceeding was consummated. The Chief of Police having refused to surrender, his place was subjected to a similar process, with a like result.

The Baton Rouge Advertiser of the 27th ultimo, in speaking of the health of that place, says: On Thursday it was reported that several cases of fever, originating in town, were rapidly assimilating to the well known and dreaded yellow fever type. To-day, however, we hear the contrary asserted and nearly all of the stampeding parties have unpacked their valises and concluded to await further developments.

The Macon Telegraph of the first notices a large cotton stalk, which had three hundred and four full grown bolls on it.

SATURDAY, : : : : : : OCTOBER 5, 1867

OUR new material is expected this morning, in which event to-morrow's AVALANCHE will appear in a much enlarged form. Conspicuous amongst its attractions, will be two foreign letters from the Reverend Dr. ROGERS, late pastor of St. Lazarus Church. It will also contain a great deal of other matter of high interest.

WE have said that the party which has been waging an incessant and violent war upon the Constitution is, and out to be held responsible for the present ruinous condition of the country. It was that party that produced nullification, secession and war. It was that party that bathed the land in blood. It was and is that party that has well nigh, if not entirely and forever destroyed our liberties. We make one more appeal to the Conservative spirit of the North. We appeal to the patriotism, to the wisdom, to the sense of justice, and to the self-interest of the North, that they arrest this frightful revolution. Never were a people as honest, enlightened and patriotic as the Southern people, placed under so terrible a despotism. Never did soldiers keep their parole as have the Southern soldiers. Never did a people submit as gracefully, as completely, and as honorably to the terms of surrender. Never were such a people placed under a rule so wretched, under a population so ignorant, and in a situation so perilous. The question is, will you have a union with your own race, or with negroes? Do you think of the consequences of a mongrel rule? Are you willing to disfranchise and utterly disgrace the superior race, and elevate above it those whom many years of ignorance and barbarism have rendered utterly unfit for self-government? Make this vast and glorious country a Sahara, but do not place her noble sons and fair daughters under negro rule. Let the military despot sway his scepter of tyranny over the land of the free and the home of the brave, but let not a race, whose natural position is slavery, who has never flourished in freedom, and who has no apprehension of the meaning of the word liberty, be placed in rule over us. We ask not that they be re-enslaved. We do not desire any such thing. They are free; let them remain free. But we ask a great and powerful people to turn back this dark and bloody tide of angry revolution which will soon sweep the last vestige of civil liberty, from the North as well as the South. Better make the whole country a bleak and barren waste, than subject it to such rule. Better sink it beneath the waves of a dark and dreary sea, from which it would never emerge, than pour over it this deluge of African rule. We tell you, men of the North, that much as we love the land of our birth, the home of our ancestors, where our dead lie buried, and where we expect our own bones to repose; we would rather its inhabitants were buried in one common grave than see them placed under the iron heel of the ignorant African. Before God, who knows that in all our strife, whether with tongue or pen or sword, we sought, with a single eye, the progress of civil liberty, we call upon every just and honorable man at the North to give us back our birthright, and deliver us from the slow and horrible tortures to which we are now subjected. Connecticut and California have shaken hands for our rescue; Montana pledges herself to the same glorious cause. Hope lives. Help! men of principle, help!

THE reports that have been industriously circulated up the roads of the prevalence of yellow fever in this city, are calculated to keep persons having business here from attending to it. If they were true we should be derelict not to advise our friends of the fact. To be silent under such circumstances, were to invite them to danger, if not death. But there is no epidemic here. A few cases landed from the boats, reported as yellow fever, have proved fatal, and a few that originated in carelessness or recklessness, likewise terminated fatally, and have been represented as the veritable fever. The Board of Health have not sustained the current impression, and there has been nothing to indicate that an epidemic is imminent, or to be apprehended. The annals of Memphis do not show a year of more uninterrupted health, and although for a time the cholera prevailed to some extent, its march was of short duration, its victims few, and it yielded to discretion and medical skill. We cannot imagine what idlers are spreading these reports, unless they are the "drummers" and "bummers" sent out from other cities to hunt up customers, and by the furthest reach of mendacity, endeavor to stifle all competition. There is nothing so calculated to produce a panic as these exaggerated reports, because for the most part, people cannot comprehend that they sometimes emanate from wanton idleness, or are circulated with even worse intent than to play upon the credulity of listeners, and derive amusement from their startled apprehensions. The health of Memphis continues excellent. We have papers from below every day, and the scourge has not made its appearance this side of New Orleans; Natchez and Vicksburg, Bayou Sara, Rodney and the "Bends" continuing healthy. Our friends may be assured that we would not deceive them. They incur no risk whatever in coming to Memphis, more than at any other time, and we advise them to bring in their cotton, lest waiting for better prices they repeat the mistake of last year.

THE jury, in Nashville, in the case of General JAS. HICKMAN vs. General W. B. BATE, for forty thousand dollars damages, returned a verdict of five cents for plaintiff. HICKMAN was a notorious North Alabama tory during the war, and was imprisoned by General BATE by order of General BRAGG, for trading with the enemy. Hence this suit. HICKMAN was proved to have had no character and to have been worth nothing, and consequently could not have been damaged. We have read the proceedings in this trial, and have no hesitation in pronouncing the conduct of Judge BRIEN a disgrace to the judicial ermine. All through the trial he displayed the most venemous prejudice against General BATE, because, we suppose, he was a gallant Confederate officer, and had for years ranked BRIEN as his intellectual superior at the Nashville bar. To cap the climax this judicial monster set aside the verdict and ordered a new trial, to subject General BATE to the expense, annoyance and vexation of a protracted contest with a mean tory. The gallant General will, we hope, come out of the next trial, as he has emerged from this, triumphant and victorious.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 4.

Interments from yellow fever up to six o'clock this morning, seventy-five; an increase of nineteen over the previous day. The weather turned cold last night—chilly and rainy to-day.

Special Orders No. 194, dated the 3d, discharges Boards of Registry, excepting the chairman of the latter to assume charge of registration, lists, books and papers pertaining thereto, and bring them forward to District Headquarters. No unnecessary delay in the preparation of jury lists allowed. Chairmen of the Boards are held responsible for the execution of the foregoing.

Judge Abell, counsel for Henry Smith, accused of perjury, filed an exception yesterday. The case is being tried before Assistant Recorder Dunn, of the Second District Court. Dunn is a negro, lately elected by the new council. Judge Abell, in his exception, sets forth that Dunn being a negro, unrecognised by the laws of Louisiana as a citizen, hence is not legally an officer. Dunn overruled this exception, tried the case and discharged the prisoner. The prosecuting witness refusing to take the stand or be sworn while a negro was acting Recorder, was asked if he intended to insult the court, replied he did, and was fined twenty-five dollars.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 4.

The Herald says the contract with Southern railroad and steamboat companies for the transportation of mails throughout the South are being satisfactorily carried out.

The Paymaster General, it is understood, received an order from the Secretary of War to reduce the clerical force of his department. It is estimated that about four hundred clerks have been dismissed by similar recent orders.

Sec. etary Browning's health is so far improved that he will soon resume his duties, instead of resigning as reported.

The Tribune special says several prominent Republicans hold the opinion that in case the House presents the President for impeachment, he will be suspended from office during his trial.

Hereafter, by General Grant's order, preference is to be given in all business of the War Department: First, to those who were wounded in service; second, to the soldiers discharged, and third to civilians having families.

FROM NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, October 4.

The investigation of the conduct of Colonel Hull, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, shows that he has been in the habit of having male convicts unmercifully whipped, administering in some cases two hundred and forty lashes, and prostituting the female convicts.

An attempt was made last night, near Franklin, Kentucky, to throw the night passenger train off the track, by putting a pile of cross ties on the track. Fortunately the cow catcher threw the ties off from the track.

James Drake, a negro, and his wife, were shot Wednesday night near Brentwood, about eight miles from Nashville. Drake was killed, and his wife badly wounded. No clue to the murderers.

The Legislature meets Monday. Many of the members have already arrived.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

As to the character and qualifications of our worthy successors in this branch of trade, their reputation is too well and favorably known in this city and throughout the country generally for us to be able in any thing we might here state to add thereto. Suffice it to say they are of long and tried experience in the branch of business, and therefore most cordially recommend a continuation of our patrons with this house.

NIPGEN & REAKIRT.

To the Public.

In having made the above purchase and resumed business at the old and well known stand, No. 318 Main street, where we have so often and for so many long years of sunshine and adversity met our old friends and patrons; and as a train of unforseen providential circumstances have shifted us around to our former place of business, it is with the greatest pleasure and gratulation that we are again prepared to offer to our former patrons and the public generally a large and well selected stock of Drugs, Medicines, etc., etc., and, indeed, everything usually kept in a first class and well conducted Drug Store, to which we are now adding, and will continue to add constantly, fresh supplies of the most staple and choice articles the various markets can afford. And as we shall import from foreign markets direct, and from first hand dealers, we intend making this House "the Drug emporium of the south;" we would, therefore, hold out special inducements, to the Wholesale and Retail Dealers in the city and country, to give us a call, examine and price our Stock before purchasing elsewhere, as we are determined by our close vigilance of the markets of this and foreign countries, as well as with sound, practical judgment in making purchases, so as to be able, with the closest quality of our Stock and the low prices we will offer them at, to be able to vie with any, and even defy competition. Anxiously hoping, therefore, that those propositions (for we intend to make good to the letter all we have proposed), will find with the hearty concurrence of our old friends and patrons and the community generally. THE STEAMER DAN ABLE

HAVING completed her repairs and undergone desirable alterations, will resume her regular day in the Memphis and Vicksburg Trade on SATURDAY, the 12th instant, at Five o'clock p.m. The repairs have added much to her former beauty and comfort, and the alterations increased her unrivalled speed.

The business and traveling community will find combined in her all the comfort, speed and safety of a first class steamer, and may rely implicitly on her as a permanent fixture in the trade through the entire season. No changes have been made in her well known corps of officers, who, having been in the trade for years, know the wants of the people, and have the will and wish to supply them. Her officers gratefully tender their thanks to the Merchants, the Planters and business community in general, for the liberal patronage so kindly bestowed on them heretofore, and hope by their conduct in future to merit a continuance of the same.

Respectfully,

To the Cotton Brokers of Memphis.

GENTLEMEN—Understand our Cotton Screws are the best in the market. The cotton from planks to top bed we have the satisfaction to say to you that we have so arranged with Mr. JONES, superintendent, of the Memphis and Ohio railroad, to place all cotton intended for us in separate cars, and to run the same to our Warehouses, thus saving a drayage to the over taxed producer and avoiding the vexatious delay in the delivery of cotton at the Main street depot, consequent upon the (as yet) inadequate facilities of the same.

An examination of our Warehouse is particularly requested, and parties who may be satisfied with it, and with the arrangement we have made with the railroad, can leave the cotton to be forwarded by Mr. JONES to his Agents along the line of the road. Respectfully,

Public Sale

OF

300 ACRES SUBURBAN LAND

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good impulses of street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable proximity to great and rapid increase in value of values.

In stating the situation of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the surrounding country, while the high character of the population, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.

THE SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about five Acres, according to plats to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

I SHALL DETERMINE TO SELL, and offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

The Buntyn Tract at Public Sale.

DESIROUS of carrying out as speedily as possible the provisions of the Will of G. Buntyn, deceased, in the disposal of his Homestead Tract, WE WILL OFFER AT PUBLIC SALE the remaining portion of the Tract, consisting of about

SEVENTY-FIVE LOTS,

Varying from two to ten acres in size, embracing with the fee'd lands all the wood land lots on the Tract.

In the high reputation for health which this locality enjoys, and the choice of easy and quick communication with the city by railway or dirt road, give to these lands advantages that must be appreciated by the business men of Memphis, as a cheap, convenient and pleasant point at which to establish their family residences, combining so fully the advantages of town and country.

With the object of removing all difficulty in selling, we shall offer the property upon the following easy

TERMS—One-fifth cash, balance in 4, 12, 18 and 24 months' with interest. Warranty deeds given and deed or trust taken, waiving dower.

EVERY LOT PUT UP WILL BE SOLD WITHOUT RESERVE. Plans of the lots may be obtained at the office of the auctioneers; each lot being staked so as to be examined before the sale.

Sale will be upon the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 16th of October, 1867.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as to-it is a matter of notoriety that their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorised by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

FALSE.—The alarm of fire last night about twelve o'clock was false.

PERSONAL.—Sell Howell, the gentlemanly passenger agent of the Charleston road, arrived in town last night from Little Rock.

Gents' linen handkerchiefs, cheaper than the cheapest, at Rob son, Sneed & Co's, 266 Main street. 21

OSHEL'S LUNCH.—This morning Oshel's first lunch will be spread out for the delectation of his friends, and we can assure our readers that it will be one worthy of their discussion.

CLOTHES THEFT.—Henderson Keitman, colored, had his clothes st len by his brother in color, Joe. Joe is now gracing the stationhouse.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—The house of JAMES B. Schell was entered night before last, and clothes and jewelry to a small amount carried off.

REMEASURING.—Parties were yesterday engaged in measuring the new pavement on Jefferson street. It ought to be well measured by this time.

RECOVERY.—We are glad to learn that officer Shoke, who was stabbed by Driscoll in the calaboose a day or so ago, is in a fair way of recovery.

SUSPECTED.—Officer Scott suspected a colored gentleman named Daniel Goode of stealing, and accordingly took him in charge.

INQUEST.—Coroner Cotton yesterday held an inquest upon the body of an unknown man, found dead at the foot of Vance street. It was a case of evident want and destitution, and so the jury said by their verdict.

PERSONAL.—Our young friend, Winn G. Cannon, who won the $500 horse at the tournament at Helena, Arkansas, a few days since, arrived at home yesterday improved in health, and also in good spirits about his luck.

THE LAND AND LOT DISTRIBUTION.—The two drawings of the Southern Asylum occur on the same day. The five dollar scheme embraces the richest city property, and four one dollar scheme, farms on our railroads. Call at the of, the parties pr company and secure descriptions and handbills.

TEMPERANCE.—The Young Men's Division No. 43, 43, 11 and 46 have had election of officers.

GRAPES.—We are indebted to Rankin, Sturgis & Co. for a box of as fine grapes as we ever tasted. The Messrs. Rankin are receiving grapes daily, in large quantities, at the Memphis fruit preserving house, 408 Shelby street, and fruiters and persons fond of grapes will take notice.

LAW COURT.—The jury in the case of McDonald vs. Titus not being able to agree, was discharged until this morning. To-day being motion day, the roll of attorneys will be called by the clerk, commencing at letter A. Tuesday next will be the last day of the present special term.

FOUND DEAD.—An unknown man was found dead yesterday beyond the city limits, in the neighborhood of the old grounds. There were no marks of violence on his person, so the jury of inquest returned a verdict that he came to his death from causes unknown to the jury.

Shaker flannel and merino underwear, of all qualities, at Robeson, Sneed & Co.'s, 266 Main street. 21

GARROTED.—John K. Flynn was garroted night before last near the fair grounds, and had his pockets emptied. The robbery was committed by two men in soldiers' uniform, one a white and the other a black man. Flynn did not have much upon his person, but what he had was confiscated.

All the "novelties" in neck ties and scarfs, at Robeson, Sneed & Co.'s, 266 Main street. 21

THE TOBACCO INJURED.—We learn from Mr Edmonds, of Edmonds, Pettegrew & Company, that recent frost have greatly damaged the growing tobacco crop, particularly in Eastern Virginia. We are sorry to hear this, for we are a great lover of the weed, and it is dear enough now in all conscience.

SHELBY COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.—The jury in the case of Cornelius Hawkins, (larceny,) found a verdict of guilty and one year in the penitentiary.

To-day the roll of attorneys will be called by the clerk, commencing at letter A.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—The case of Barrett vs. Bonbirty & Brother, not being concluded on yesterday will be taken up to-day. Monday next will be motion day, and on that day the law side of this Court will adjourn to Court in course. Tuesday next the criminal docket will be taken up and called regularly.

BURGLARY.—The house of Mr. William Goode, on Overton street, was entered Friday morning, and a miscellaneous assortment of male and female wearing apparel appropriated by the knights of the dark lantern. They also must have been hungry, for they went through the pantry of Mrs. Goode, and thoroughly cleaned it out.

CLOTHES THIEF.—The wearing of good clothes is commendable when a man can buy and pay for them, but the stealing of them is more honored in the breach than the observance," and so thought Squire Miller, yesterday, when he sent Joe Morris, of the long-heeled tribe, to jail for helping himself to the clothes of Cornelius Burton.

Emmons & Son, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received the Metropolitan Record, New York Clipper, Irish American, Irish People, Freeman's Journal, Turf, Field and Farm, Littell's Living Age, New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Literary Album, Boston Pilot, Banner of Light, Railroad Guide for October and the London Art Journal.

Cassimere business suits, in choice and desirable styles, at Robeson, Sneed & Co.'s, 266 Main street. 21

CHICKEN THIEF.—Charles Walsh has a number of domestic fowls, and Mr. Stewart, a colored admirer of chicken pie, Friday night concluded that, as they did not roost high, he would introduce some of them under cover of a pasty to his digestive organs. Mr. Walsh, not admiring Stewart's manner of procuring chickens, had him arrested, and Squire Miller, coinciding with Mr. Walsh, sent him to jail to await examination on Monday.

THE DIAMOND LINE.—This line has been and will be one of the greatest conveniences to our merchants. It transports freights from all Eastern points to Memphis and the Southwest in the speediest and the cheapest manner, and brings freight from New York to our doors with but one transfer. The gentlemanly and capable agents are Captain Fiem. Calvert and Mr. Wm. Dutton, and no word we could say would enhance their reputation for business tact and gentlemanly qualities.

Ed. Worsham has, this morning, the following: Chimney Corner, Album, Harper's Weekly, Saturday Magazine, Wilkie's Spirit of the Times, LaCrosse Democrat, Base Ball Chronicle, Saturday Night, Ledger, Boston Pilot, Banner of Light, Land we Love for October, Negro, by Ariel, and the reply to it, by R. A. Young, D. D.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The case of Newmark vs the Hartford and Aetna Insurance Companies was continued at defendant's cost. The cases set for trial formerly are being called as they appear on the docket. If attorneys interested in such cases are not present when the cases are reached, the cases will be disposed of by the Court by continuance or otherwise. Very little business was transacted on yesterday in consequence of the absence of counsel in these cases.

THE HOUSE WARMING.—The officers of the United States District Court had their house warming yesterday. A large company of their friends assembled, among whom we noticed all our prominent lawyers, and many of our first citizens. Champagne was drank, and the genial Hiner of the occasion was most pleasing. The officers of the Court made themselves ubiquitous, and everything was done to make the occasion one of unalloyed pleasure. We accordingly thank our hosts, space will not allow us to further dilate upon it.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—Two negro men got into an altercation yesterday on the levee; from words they proceeded to acts, and the result was that one of them pulled out a razor and cut the other in the stomach. As soon as the cutting was done, the negro who used the razor ran upon a boat, and while the officers were searching for him on the boat on which he first got, he made good his escape from another to shore. The wounded man was taken to the hospital, and will be sure to die.

STABBING AFFRAY ON A STEAMBOAT.—On the steamer Lady, when about eighty miles below here, a difficulty occurred between Sol Jones and Monroe Williams, both negroes. Williams attacked Jones with a butcher knife, eighteen inches in the blade, wounded him in both arms, nearly severed the left hand across the palm, and cut at his bowels. This cut at the bowels cut through his pants and shirt, and just scratched the skin. The right hand is almost severed across the palm. On the arrival of the boat he was taken possession of by officer Leahy and lodged in the calaboose, where the wounded man was also taken. At twelve o'clock last night Jones was suffering much, but his wounds are not considered dangerous.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION.—We cannot but commend the benevolent and philanthropic objects of the young men engaged in the organization of this most christian association. As charity is the greatest of virtues, so we must account the disinterested practices of that virtue as among the best of men. To attend the sick in a divine injunction, and this is just what Mr. Alsotin and his associates propose doing. Its establishment has no reference to any particular form of disease or pestilence in the city. We do know how many young and gallant lives are yearly sacrificed from want of attention, and good nursing; every doctor in his practice daily meets such cases, and it is to supply this want the Association is formed. Hundreds of young men, occupying rooms in the upper stories of our large buildings, have suffered during illness, and thousands have died for the want of that ministering which is more than half the battle with death. It is to give this care to just such cases that the Association has been organized, and we wish them every success in their humane efforts to ameliorate the condition of sick, homeless young men. The Association does not propose to confine itself to this city alone, but intend that its operations shall be as wide and general as occasion shall demand.

MOON & Co., No. 14 MONROE STREET.—We have never with greater pleasure directed the attention of our numerous country readers to any Memphis firm, than we do to our worthy and deserving friends, Messrs. Moon & Co. It was our privilege, in many a rough campaign, to share the dangers of the field with one of his members, Captain Jas. H. Bate, brother of our old division commander Major General Bate, of Tennessee, and Major Jno. Moon, also of the "lost cause," is honorably known on both sides of this river. These gentlemen, now engaged in this city as cotton factors, have, by their sterling integrity and fine business talents, won for themselves an enviable position in commercial circles, and their increasing trade exhibits the confidence reposed in them by the planter and merchant. To the shippers of cotton to this market we bespeak for Messrs. Moon & Co. a liberal patronage, which we know will be worthily bestowed upon a firm, solvent, honest, intelligent and eminently trustworthy.

KIDNAPPING.—We published a few days ago, an account of the arrest of a negro for stealing four cows from a locality just beyond the Mississippi line. He was arrested in Memphis and placed in jail. Yesterday, so we are informed, the owner of the cows came to town and applied to General Wallace for information as to how he would proceed to get the negro to Mississippi. The General gave him the desired information, but the process was too slow, and he applied to 'squire Walton who issued an order to have him brought before him, and gave the order to constable Jericho to carry out. The negro was never brought before the 'squire but delivered by Jericho to the owner of the cows, and a party of his friends who immediately drove off in a wagon. Our authorities hearing of the affair about an hour and a half after its occurrence, a warrant was issued against Jericho, but he could not be found. The course of Jericho may have been taken through ignorance, or a misunderstanding of the force of his order, but to say the least the affair wears a bad look.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—The Board had a called meeting yesterday to take into consideration the vote of the last meeting instructing the Committee to cast the city's vote in the Memphis and Ohio railroad against any directory in favor of leasing or consolidating the road with the Louisville and Nashville road. A motion was made by Alderman Shaw to amend the minutes so as to make the instructions read "Louisville and Nashville or any other road." The motion was lost, and Alderman Hill moved that the Committee be instructed to cast the vote of the city for the Woodruff directory. A lengthy and rather spirited debate sprang up, but the motion finally prevailed by the following vote:

Ayes—Glancy, Cochran, Amis, Hill, Brown, Holst and Smith—7.

Nays—Powers, Johnson, Shaw, Ruffin and Lemon—5.

So the action of the last meeting was reversed, and the vote of the city will be cast for the Woodruff directory.

THE NEW MEMPHIS.—The benefit last night of Miss Belle Boyd was a success, and we could see the difference the crowded house made in the acting of all. Miss Belle did well as Arrah, but had she thrown more fire into it, and schooled her voice a little more, her success would have been more decided; but we can see an improvement every night she appears. Mr. Roche gave us another evidence of the versatility of his genius, and Mr. Ellerton as Michael Feeney played that detestable character well. The song "Wearing of the Green" was not much to be commended, and the name Dundrearyism of Jefferson was present. To-night we will have "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" and "Stage Struck." In the first Miss Katy Gilbert makes her first appearance, and in the latter Miss Fanny Pierson will enchant the audience.

To-night little Katy Gilbert will appear as Mary Morgan in "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." She appeared last season at the Greenlaw Opera House, and the large audience went into enthusiasm over her clear, facile and natural rendition of the part. This great moral drama should command special attention and secure a full attendance, and any one who misses seeing "our Katy" in this character will regret it. She is but eleven years old, but the precocity of her intellect bespeaks genius much older.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—The store of S. Rosenfeld, Jr., wholesale tobacconist, corner of Jefferson and Third streets, was entered last night and fifty dollars was taken out of the cash drawer, along with a pair of derringers. The safe is a patent combination lock, without a key, but opens with numbers; and as it was not blown open or injured, it seems strange how the thief opened it. The thief also stole a pair of fine sleeve buttons out of a shirt hanging on the bed post, but he made so little noise as not to awaken Mr. Rosenfeld, who slept in the room. No cigars or tobacco are missing, although the finest brands were exposed to the thief after his entrance.

"FAMILY JARS."—We do not mean the pleasant farce of that name, but family jars that bring the jarrists up before a magistrate's court. Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Kehoe occupy adjoining tenements in a classic up town locality. Mrs. Conner's lingual organs are fully developed; in fact, she plays an energetic tune of chin music when she starts. She was up the day before yesterday, for slander, for which she had to pay a fine. The war ceased for awhile, but was reopened with vigor yesterday, and the consequences was that the fair Conner had to make a second appearance before 'squire Miller, to answer to a peace warrant. She had to give bonds in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to keep the peace toward the Kehoes

The Arkansas remains at low tide with twenty-five inches in the channel to Pine Bluff, and eighteen inches above there. The Rowena reports White river falling, with three feet six inches in the channel to Duvall's Bluff. The Vicksburg packet reports six feet between here and Vicksburg.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There was a fair amount of business transacted on the levee yesterday, with an active movement in freights.

The Rowena, Captain John R. Davis, arrived from White river at noon, with twenty-two bales of new cotton and a full passenger trip. She leaves for White river to-day, at five p.m. She is the regular United States mail packet, and connects at Duvall's Bluff with the Little Rock railroad. Her passenger accommodations are unsurpassed. Messrs. Kidder, Mill, Harry and Sharp, clever and courteous gentlemen, are her clerks.

Captain John R. Davis, through the Memphis and White River packet company, has chartered the Ozark for the White river trade, leaving here every Thursday. She is now at the upper landing, making some light repairs, and will start on her first trip on Thursday next. Captain John Eaton, a well known and popular commander, will have charge of her, with the efficient clerk and suitable gentleman, Mr. James McDonald, in charge of the office.

The Des Arc, Captain John Minter, arrived from Vicksburg yesterday morning, with fifty-five bales of new cotton and a good passenger trip. She is the regular Saturday Vicksburg and Bends packet, and leaves to-day, at five p.m. Messrs. Miller and Cook, Hanks, two gentlemen noted for their urbanity and courtesy, have charge of the office.

The Norman, Captain Scott, will leave this evening, at five p.m., for White river.

The Sherman, Captain George Baker, will leave this evening, at five p.m., for Vicksburg and the bends.

The Ned Tracy has been seen at St. Louis, to Captain John G. Cipella.

The steamer Mary McDonald, Peoria City, H. M. Stevens and Rubicon will form a St. Louis and Vicksburg line. The Columbia has also entered the St. Louis and Vicksburg trade.

The City of Cairo, Captain Bob Riley, is the packet for St. Louis to-day, leaving at five p.m.

The St. Louis and Minna packet company, organized as a joint stock association, under a recently obtained Illinois charter, has purchased the following steamers: Clara, from Messrs. Charles G. Rogers, R. W. Gould and Samuel Rider, for the consideration of five hundred shares stock of said company; Post Boy, from James A Isaacs, C. S. Rogers, T. B. Shipley, R. W. Gould and S. Rider, for $20,000.

The Cornelia arrived from St. Louis yesterday morning, with a fair cargo of merchandise. She discharged her freight and returned to St. Louis last evening with a fair passenger trip and twenty-five tons of miscellaneous freight.

The Louisiana is aground at Island 24, the Norma at Philip's bar, and the Sherman at Hat island.

The American is advertised to leave to-day at five p.m. for the Arkansas, Ed. Newton master.

The Mohawk and Sea, with barges, after a tedious trip, arrived yesterday at noon. The Mohawk left for New Orleans at five p.m. The Sea returns to St. Louis from here.

Two negro deck hands had a quarrel yesterday on the levee, which resulted in the killing of one by having his subrails cut out with a razor. A full account of the affair will be found in our local columns.

The steamship Tioga, recently turned on the Atlantic, while en route from New Orleans for Philadelphia, was insured in five Cincinnati offices for $25,000.

The Gleaner, Captain John Fenwick, will be found at the wharf this morning to receive for Pine Bluff and way points on the Arkansas, and leave to-day at three p.m. She is the regular United states mail packet, and will go out without fail. A genial and clever gentleman presides in the office.

The J. S. McCune arrived from Cairo yesterday morning with five hundred tons of freight, including two thousand sacks of oats for the Louisiana.

A gentleman, whose name could not be ascertained, started from New Orleans on a steamer, recently, for St. Louis, having the yellow fever. When near that city he was put ashore, and remained on the banks of the Mississippi for two days, being robbed in the meantime of $600 in gold, and finally died of starvation and disease.

Mr. George Overmeyer, of South Bend, Arkansas, died at Evansville, on Monday, of swamp fever.

Wm. L. Dent, pilot of the steamer Calumet, died at Vicksburg, on Monday, of bilious fever.

The Bostella, at last accounts, was hard aground at Shawpee Lewis.

The captain of the steamer Cuba No 2 was recently arrested by order of the Mayor of Shreveport, on the charge of breaking quarantine. The Mayor sentenced him to fifty dollars fine and twenty-four hours imprisonment, but was induced to remit both punishments.

There is only six feet water at Pawpaw Island, and the channel is down the chute.

The New Orleans Crescent, of Wednesday, says:

There was next to nothing doing yesterday on the levee, except around the steamboats of the Gray Eagle. She brought the largest load of cotton—1,346 bales—of the season, and left again on time. As the lower landing some little freight was shipped, but the rates in Red river having advanced, shippers were disposed to hold off, hoping for a reduction. The quarantine regulations that had been established below Shreveport having been abolished last week, ought to cause large quantities of freight to be shipped to Shreveport, there being no further hindrance to the intercourse up Red river.

The Louisville Courier, of Thursday, says:

The river was rising slowly yesterday, with twenty-five inches in the canal, by the mark, a rise of an inch at the head of the falls and three inches at Portland. The river at Cincinnati at noon yesterday was unchanged, therefore the hopes of much of a rise from that quarter are dissipated. The indications, however favor rain. The Board of Underwriters in this city yesterday determined that after this date they will take no risks on cargoes shipped on barges or on barges towed by steamers. Owing to the extreme low stage of water, and the unnavigable condition of the river, the Underwriters, to facilitate commerce, have specified that steamers must transfer their freights temporarily into barges or lighters, to take them over any bar or obstruction, but in all cases the cargo must be again transferred to the steamers, or the insurance vitiated. The extra risks of cargoes in barges, together with the almost daily losses incurred have caused this action to Underwriters. This move on the part of the insurance agencies in this city, merits the hearty concurrence of almost the whole community, and it is to be hoped that they will adhere to their resolution until all the barge line towing concerns, excepting, of course, coal, hay or grain in bulk, shall have ceased to exist. All such relics of barbarism should give place to the more modern improvements, the swift sailing, capacious and comfortable floating palaces of the present day. McCormick's new machine, the "Automatic Fireman," will be put on the mail packet General Neill. Mr. McCormick was in the city yesterday, en route to Washington, where he goes to obtain a patent.

The Evansville Journal, of Wednesday, has the following:

We learn there was a high old game among the roughs, on the other day. The Ada Lyons having grounded hopelessly, the circus company were taken on board the Louisa. Two of the showmen sat down to a friendly game of draw. Presently they quarrelled, and one knocked the other down. Captain Botsus and the mate refused to stop the row, and the latter was then banged against them and threatened to throw the captain overboard. In the row one of the showmen knocked one of the deck hands down. The deck hand watched his opportunity and struck the showman in the head with a claw hammer, knocking him overboard. The boat landed at Golconda and a law suit was instituted. The Louisa left Evansville and Cairo has been run up to ten dollars, and pound freight fifty cents per hundred. The advance is deemed necessary on account of the trouble of navigation.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Thursday, has the following:

River going steadily down. Stationary at Dubuque yesterday, and falling below; at the way to St. Louis. Memphis yesterday became considerable by six p.m. Business is suffering inevitably from low water. The news of heavy rains having fallen all over the Northwest would gladden everybody. The earth wants it as well as the rivers. Steamboating hence to New Orleans has not been very profitable of late. Boatmen would be surprised to learn that any of the agents of the Mississippi Valley transportation company's tow boats, made lately, remitted in profit. The Virginia was yesterday out from this port for New Orleans, eighteen days. And we don't know that she was further down than ten miles below Memphis. The round trip will occupy probably thirty days. That trip must end in considerable loss to the owners. A New Orleans packet lately returned, paid the crew for twenty-two days, and her total receipts from all sources, freight and passengers, on the round trip, amounted to $6,300, and her advantage of five hundred and fifty tons on board on leaving New Orleans. If that boat's daily expenses averaged four hundred dollars, a moderate estimate, it will be seen that no profits were left for the owners. The weather was extremely hot yesterday.

FRIDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

Court Martial to Try General Kautz.

Remains of Booth Brought to Light.

No Further Interference with the Courts in North Carolina.

Returns of the Election in Alabama.

Still Another Fenian Scare in England.

WASHINGTON, October 3.—A general court martial has convened at Vicksburg for the trial of General Kautz, which is composed of Generals Arnold, Gillem, Burbank, Watkins, Kuger, Colonels Gilbert, Chandler, and Brevet Colonel Goodfellow, Judge Advocate.

The following letter, received by a collector of internal revenue at the West, has been sent to the Internal Revenue office:

"SIR: FRIEND: The inclosed fifty dollars is the difference between the letter of the law, as my legal adviser interprets it, and the spirit of the law, as interpreted by the nature deliberations of an enlightened and tender conscience. Being desirous by neither blunt the conscience nor to defraud so just a government as our own, I send you this, the property of Uncle Sam as internal revenue.

I remain, yours, RIGHT."

On Tuesday, in accordance with orders received at Washington Arsenal by General Ramsay, commandant of the post, from General Grant, Secretary of War, the bodies of the assassins conspirators, and of Henry Wirz, the Andersonville jailor, were removed from their graves and reinterred in another portion of the Arsenal grounds. This quick removal was rendered necessary, it seems, by the projected improvement of the arsenal grounds. The body of J. Wilkes Booth was buried in what was known as the waterroom of the penitentiary building. It was inclosed in an ammunition box. After the grave was covered with dirt, the brick flooring was replaced. The burial having been accomplished, the windows were boarded up and the door made secure, Secretary Stanton taking the key with him. The key was kept at the War Department up till four weeks ago, when it was returned to the Arsenal officers. On receipt of orders for the removal of the bodies, including Booth's, on Tuesday, laborers were at once set to work, which soon accomplished the job of taking them from the graves before mentioned and carrying them to the warehouse, where a trench was dug, a short distance from the wall, in which all the bodies were placed and secrecy enjoined. But few persons were aware that the removals had been made. It would seem from this act that the Government does not intend to give up the body of Booth to his relatives. The bodies of Booth, Payne, Harrold, Atzerot, Wirz and Mrs. Surratt were placed in a common grave.

MOBILE, October 4.—There were no deaths from yellow fever to-day.

The total vote was 8266, of which 1112 are whites, nearly all of which are for the convention.

MONTGOMERY, October 4.—Returns to-day have been received from fifteen counties. The number of registered voters is 61,490, and the number of votes polled is 34,260, being a majority of 3266.

KEY WEST, October 3.—The yellow fever is rapidly disappearing at Tortugas, only a few cases remaining in the hospitals Lieutenant Gorman was buried on the 23d ultimo.

FLORENCE, October 4.—Official dispatches published to-day are silent in regard to Rome, but confirm reports that the revolution has broken out in the Papal province of Viterbo.

LIVERPOOL, October 3.—Market heavy all day, and closed at a decline of ½d.

LONDON, October 3—Evening.—It was reported a policeman had been shot and killed in Rochdale by some Fenians. A policeman was attacked and nearly killed in this city by a gang of Irishmen last night. These events, in connection with recent occurrences in Manchester and Ireland, have given rise to rumors of a new widespread Fenian conspiracy.

NEW YORK, October 4.—Gold opened at 140 at 11 a.m. Gold 140¾. Cotton dull, and prices unchanged. Exchange steady.

LIVERPOOL, October 4.—Cotton active; uplands 8¾d; Orleans 8¾d; sales 10,000 bales; sales to speculators 8000 bales; sales for exports 17,000. Week's sales 78,000. Stock 798,000, of which 228,000 is American.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, October 5, 1867.

Money has been even more stringent than heretofore, probably occasioned by the National Banks holding on until after the quarterly returns are made, and a general want of confidence, which has been manifest, the impression being quite extensive that they are not a whit sounder than they ought to be. Cotton, too, has come in rather slowly, perhaps on account of the fall in prices, and an anticipated rise, but we are very sure our country friends, as they did last year, will regret not bringing their crop to market as soon as ginned and baled. There have been numerous reports, too, circulated in every direction, prejudicial to the reputation of the city, which was never more healthy at this season, and no apprehensions whatever are entertained that the yellow fever will prevail here, in sporadic form, and that in consequence of the importation of disease from New Orleans, where it has been raging with considerable virulence. The Times, of that city, says: "A walk through the former great thoroughfares, Royal and Chartres streets, revealed an extremely inert state of affairs. Stores closed, others about half filled with merchandise with few buyers; a dray passing along occasionally, then a hearse, with a few followers, while the unattended hearse, with not a follower, was to be seen wending its way with the remains of some victim of the scourge. It will require a telescope of remarkable strong powers to discover much business on the seven miles front of the levee of New Orleans. Two or three steamships are loading for Northern ports, two or three small river vessels for the Gulf ports. The middle of November will arrive before there will be any real increase or improvement in sales and business generally." From this it will be seen that New Orleans is stagnant beyond precedent.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, October 5, 1867.

Trade in the leading markets yesterday was a little more active than on the day previous. An active jobbing trade was doing in plantation supplies. Local packets from White and Arkansas rivers and from Vicksburg brought in a large list of orders. The markets are well supplied, with prices steady and unchanged. The streets were crowded with strangers yesterday, notwithstanding the false reports that had been circulated relative to the prevalence of yellow fever here. The city is extremely healthy, and country merchants can visit our city with safety.

COTTON—The market yesterday was dull and quiet, with few transactions. Prices were nominal and unsettled, and holders asked one-eighth to make concessions, although what fair, but in most cases prices were asked above buyers' views sales for the day foot up small, with middlings 17½@18; strict middling 17¾@18; low middlings 16¾@17; good ordinary 15 @16. The market closed heavy, at the following quotations:

Strict Middling	18 @18¼
Middling	17¾@18
Low Middling	17 @17¼
Good Ordinary	16 @16¼
Ordinary	15 @15¼

Receipts for the week, 1,200 bales; exports 500 bales; stock on hand this date, 1,700 bales.

The Liverpool market yesterday was reported active, with uplands at 8¾d; Orleans 8¾d; sales 10,000 bales; to speculators 8,000; for exports 17,000. Week's sales 78,000; stock on hand 798,000, of which 228,000 is American. The New York papers were reported dull and unchanged.

The New Orleans Times says:

The cotton staple is represented by only 14,000 bales (not sufficient for an ordinary sale in flush times), and yet prices rule nominal at figure. Last year at this period there were 50,000 sales, and prices were higher. The banks are not discounting, indeed, it is difficult and rare to find a quorum of directors for business.

The Times further says:

The month of October is not ushered in as it were with any degree of liveliness or activity. The great decline in cotton in Liverpool adds to the general despondency now existing, not only in commercial circles, but in financial and social ones. We only in commercial circles, but in financial and social ones. We may add that the political future is not regarded with that confidence which should exist.

The same paper anticipates a better state of things when sickness shall have subsided, and it is known that three or four millions of legal tender notes are on the way for investment in cotton. It urges that the staple shall be forwarded to market with all possible speed, as it will inspire confidence, which will not be the case if it is retained in the country.

The New Orleans Times says:

"If there were one hundred thousand bales of cotton in our markets at this moment, as last year at this time, there would not be the pressure for money which now exists. Specie or there might not be large sales, yet the fact of a good supply of the staple being in warehouses ready for shipment on receipt of credit, which we regret to say is not the case at present, would be cheering. If cotton were here in abundance, the country a lack of confidence, a general disposition to sell, and here this cotton trade is met with tyranny and evils of the internal revenue (not internal) law, which is the most infernal, exactions. It may not only be included in this category, but termed diabolical, demoniacal, fiendish, the offspring of hell-born, concocted to ruin cotton cultivation in the United States, or rather in the ruins of what was once a component part of the "so called" United States."

They are already talking in New York of 15c for middling. For our part we do not expect it to reach over 20c, although we have no idea the crop will exceed 2,000,000 bales.
